

Committee Chair Report

School Year: 2015-16 _____

Prepared by: Laura Teufel _____

Date: May 2015 _____

Committee Name: Cultural Arts

Committee Chair(s): Laura Teufel

Co-Worker(s):

What We Accomplished and When:

2015-16 year

Josh and Gab a musical-comedy district wide anti-bullying assembly in Sept. (cost $627.50)

Prismatic Magic: Black History Laser show on Feb. 22 (cost $ 995)

CLO musical of The Incredibly Innovative Innovators of Pittsburgh on May 15 with two shows at 8:45 and 9:45am (cost $1,150)

2014-15 year

Josh and Gab show, a district wide anti-bullying assembly, Sept. 8, 2014. (Cost $565)

Fabulous Chinese Acrobats from the Bureau of Lectures, 2 shows, Sept 30 at 9am and 10:15am (Cost $990)

CLO musical of The Next Galileo, March 11, with 2 shows starting at 1:15 and 2:15pm. (Cost $1,150)

2013-14 year

Attack Theatre from Gateway to the Arts, a dance group, Nov 14 at 1:15pm and 2:30pm (The cost is $1025)

Hamstead Stage Theatre, the Wizard of Oz, May 13th at 9 and 10:15am (cost $805)

2012-13 year

Cello Furry from Gateway to the Arts, a rock-cello band, with only one performance due to cost. We held a workshop for advanced cello students who then performed in the assembly Oct. 19. 2012 from 2:15 to 3pm (cost $1,000)

Caribbean Traditions from Gateway to the Arts, a steel drum band with music, May 10 with two performances at 10am and 11am (cost $685)

When job was started and completed: throughout the year

Resources used/needed: PTA funds. I brought bottled waters to all the performers and took pictures for the newsletter

We continued to publicize the assemblies (after the event occurred) in the PTA Newsletter, highlighting where PTA funds were being used.

Monies Used/Profits Gained: $2,772.50 of the total $3,000 budget

Difficulties: Scheduling around testing.

Suggestions for Next Year: The CLO performance this year was best geared towards older kids (3-5 grade)

Other Comments.

Rotate a morning and afternoon assemblies to accommodate kindergartens.